Congregational Church Notes

The painters are hard at work decorating the interior of the church. The new organ will be shipped this week, and all the repairs will be made as speedily as possible. Meanwhile the chapel, it is hoped, will be so we can occupy it soon for midweek prayer services. Further definite announcements will be made later.

The July committee from the Ladies' Aid society netted over fifty dollars from their labors. The plan worked well and was well worked.

WILLOUGHBY FIELD DAY.

The weather man did not get the order for a good day Saturday so an excellent program for field day at Willoughby was more or less interrupted. Music was furnished by the E. L. Chandler Co. band.

In the forenoon there was a ball game between Irasburg and Orleans. The crowd was driven from the field once by the rain but returned to watch the finish of the game. It was a rather loosely played game which could not be helped on account of wet grounds and no organization of players. The batteries were for Irasburg, Leland and Washer; for Orleans, Laird and Bossell. The score was 6-3 in favor of Irasburg.

Lunch and dinner was served at various booths and at the Willoughby house. It rained nearly all the afternoon until the sports were completely over and then it very kindly stopped.

The sports in the afternoon were as follows: Tug-of-war, Westmore vs. Brownington, won by Brownington after a hard pull. Potato race won by Albert Hardy, 2nd, Rawson Calkins. Sack race won by Elmore Sheldon. 2nd, Shirley Wakeman. Tub race won by Elmore Sheldon. 2nd, Amos Norton. Girls' double rowing race won by Misses Miller and Wright. 2nd, Misses Myers and Davis. Swimming match won by E. L. White, 2nd, A. L. Scott. Single rowing race won by John Hawkes. 2nd, Ralph Hooker. Double paddle canoe race won by Cassidy and Jewell. 2nd, Scott and Wakeman. Canoe tilting won by White and Sheldon, 2nd, Scott and Wakeman. Handicap launch race won by J. G. Turnbull. Handicap, 1 mile, 15 min. around two mile course. Time, 23 min., 45 sec.

In the evening during a pouring rain a fine concert was rendered by Orleans talent assisted by Miss Annie Stuart of New York, Miss L. Blanche Russell of Barre, and Charles Griffith of Wilmington, Delaware.

With the exception of the dampness everyone seemed to enjoy the day and the Willoughby Fish and Game club may feel well satisfied with their fifth annual field day at Willoughby. There is no more beautiful spot in New England to spend a day of leisure.

Arthur Davies spent Saturday and Sunday in Derby.

The W. C. T. U. will hold a lawn party at the home of Mr. Taylor Thursday evening. A program consisting of singing and recitations will be rendered and ice cream and cake will be served.

Vermont Notes.

The St. Albans district Bible school and camp meeting is to be held at Riverside, Sheldon, August 12 to 24.

Antoni Balcheski, employed by the Vermont Marble company, Rutland, was almost instantly killed when he deliberately walked into a Delaware & Hudson train, which was running at high speed past the station at West Rutland.

George Connors of Barre, 15 years of age, was drowned in the Winoski river Aug. 2 in a swimming race. Theodore Oney of Weybridge, five years old, was drowned in the Otter Creek Aug. 3, when he fell from the rocks where he was playing.

The 150th anniversary of the settlement of the town of Hartland will be celebrated at that village on Bennington day, August 16. A historic parade will be held in the morning in which will appear the coach in which General Lafayette rode through the town in 1842. Memorial and historical addresses will be given in the afternoon.

The Vermont State Horticultural society held its annual orchard meeting on the farm of T. H. West of Dorset. Demonstrations in tree surgery and spraying and round table discussion occupied the afternoon. Addresses were delivered by President E. H. Hallett of St. Johnsbury Center and Prof. M. B. Cummings of the University of Vermont. Mr. West has a young orchard of 3,000 trees.

MAIMONIDES' TEACHINGS.

Fear the Lord, but love him also, for fear only restrains a man from sin, while love stimulates him to good.

The perfection of the body is a necessary antecedent to the perfection of the soul, for health is the key that unlocks the inner chamber.

Measure your words, for the more your words the more your errors. Ask for explanations of what you do not understand, but let it be done at a fitting moment and in fitting language.

Keep firmly to your word. Let not a legal contract or witness be more binding than your verbal promise even privately made.

Eat not excessively or ravenously. From a man's behavior at a public meal you can discern his character.

The total abstinence from wine is good, but I will not lay this on you as an injunction. Yet break wine's power with water and drink it for nourishment, not for mere enjoyment.

Dress as well as your means will allow, but spend on food less than you can afford.

Honor your wives, for they are your honor. Withhold not discipline from them and let them not rule over you.

We have a few more pair of

Men's and Boys' Oxfords
